

Outside Sales Rep in our Tacoma, WA location

Job Description:

This person must have at least three years of construction knowledge and has worked in a sales environment. The primary responsibilities of the Outside Sales person are to generate new sales and expand existing accounts. Additional responsibilities will be prospecting, scheduling meetings, closing deals, building and maintaining long term relationships and regularly conduct business at construction job sites.

Requirements:

- Knowledge of Construction materials a MUST
- Sales and Customer service experience
- Use of own Vehicle
- Proficient in Inventory Software and Microsoft Office
- Planning, organizational and time management
- Sense of personal responsibility
- Professional verbal and written communications
- Ability to problem solve

Masons Supply Company offers competitive base wages and commission structure. Excellent benefits including, medical, dental, vision, paid holidays and vacation/sick.

All candidates must pass a background check, DMV records check and drug test.